

SACRIFICE OF LIFE IN FLAMES STOPS

Order Given That No More of Forest Service Forces Shall Die to Save the Trees.

GREAT FIRES SEEM NOW UNDER CONTROL

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 25.—The mystery of the bodies found in the St. Joe country of Idaho probably will be cleared up today when the Milwaukee runs its first passenger train to Avery.
One hundred and six men living in the St. Joe valley are said to be missing.

Twenty-two bodies supposed to be those of settlers, were found yesterday. Several days ago twenty bodies were discovered scattered over an area of a mile and it was assumed they were forest rangers. Supervisor Weigle including them in his list of dead employees. Last night, however, he declared they were not rangers. Add the number of dead rangers, 74; the 44 bodies found near Avery; the 10 Japanese who perished near Avery, and the various known dead in Washington, Idaho and Montana and the total is 142. This is without taking into account the 185 rangers imprisoned on the headwaters of the St. Joe.

To Risk Life No More.

The appalling loss of life among the forest employes has taken the heart out of the surviving foresters and an order has been issued not to risk life to save timber.

The little fires are being extinguished, but the great fires, to fight which might result in more loss of life, will be allowed to burn themselves out or until the rains extinguish them. It is believed that the present fires are the most expensive the United States has ever known. An expert railroad builder estimates the loss of the Milwaukee railroad at $2,500,000.

The Spokane chamber of commerce has begun the raising of a large relief fund. The chamber's representative, who has just returned from Idaho, believes that many ranchers have been burned to death and that many more have lost everything they possessed and will need financial aid to carry them through the fire.

Among the first subscribers to the fund which is being collected at Wattles were John Hays Hammond and United States Senator Heyburn, of Idaho.

Scores Surrounded by Flames.

A party of fifteen are surrounded twelve miles beyond Weatles meadows, but are supposed to be safe. There are also 180 men surrounded in the mountains between Lolo pass and St. Mary's and Major Penn has sent guides to pilot them out.

Conditions in the Clearwater reserve are hopeless and Major Penn has received instructions from the forestry headquarters at Missoula to recall all the fire fighters from the interior of the stricken region and set them to work on the outskirts of the fire zone.
The message said: "Save the lives of the men and let the timber go."

There are 35 large fires, and many smaller ones on the reservation.

BALLINGER'S VIEW OF IT.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 25.—Secretary of the Interior Richard A. Ballinger, returned to this city yesterday after a four day inspection trip to the Yosemite valley. After spending a few hours here he departed for his home in Seattle. Referring to the recent destructive forest fires Secretary Bullinger said:

"We may find it necessary to revert to the old Indian method of burning over the land annually at seasonal periods. One thing we intend making every effort to do is to compel loggers to clean up. The litter which has been left in many places has aided the destructiveness of forest fires enormously." He expressed himself as shocked by the vandalism with which the big trees had been treated and in this connection he ordered that a fence be erected around the "grizzly giants."

SAYS CRISIS IS PAST.

Washington, Aug. 25.—Two companies of troops requested by Supt.
Morgan of the Flathead Indian reservation for fire fighting duty will not be required owing to a fall of snow last night, says a telegram received at the Indian bureau today. It is assumed the fires in that section are under control.

Facing his judgment on telegrams from the northwest telling of the fall of rain and snow Forester Pollard today expressed the opinion to war department officials that the crisis had passed in the fight against the forest fires.

NEW FIRE BREAKS OUT.

Seattle, Wash., August 25.—Men, dynamite and supplies were rushed yesterday to Barnes, on the Columbia and Puget Sound railroad, about thirty miles east of Seattle. In a desperate effort to check what is considered the worst fire that has yet broken out in western Washington. D. P. Simons, Jr., chief of the forest wardens, sent every man at his disposal. Fire burning about two and one-half miles south of Gambell. It is said to have been started by Indians who wanted a field burned over.

FIRE BEYOND CONTROL.

Chico, Cal., Aug. 25.—A forest fire which has been raging for the last two weeks twenty miles east of this place has passed beyond the control of the STRENUOUS COLONEL STARTING ON HIS ALREADY SENSATIONAL TRIP.

BURNED BEYOND

Locomotive from the Rear Plows Through Sleeper in Which Are Eighteen.

Durand, Mich., Aug. 25.—More than a dozen persons were killed last night on the Grand Trunk railroad in a rear end collision three miles east of Durand, Mich., when an eastbound passenger train No. 4 plowed through the Pullman sleeper Nebraska on the rear end of passenger train No. 14.
The fire box of the locomotive of No. 4 fell out and set fire to the wrecked Pullman and many of the victims were burned beyond all hope of identification.

The Dead.

MRS. ALMA WOODWARD, traveling from Belvidere, N. D., to Montreal.
MRS. S. GILPIN, Chicago.
MRS. MCBANE, of Chicago, missing, but body not identified.

BLONDE WOMAN, about 40 years, believed to be Miss Swinger, of Belvidere, who was traveling with Mrs.
Woodward as a trained nurse.

Three charred bodies burned beyond recognition; one being that of a child.

Portions of charred bodies believed to represent from six to twelve persons.

In Flint Hospital.

The following are at Hurley hospital, in Flint, badly injured: Bert Mitchell, Battle Creek, engineer of train No. 14, head bruised, condition critical; Mrs. G. A. Sholtes, Chicago, aged 28, scalp wound and bruises.

Arthur Watt, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, aged 33, face and hands burned.

Mrs. Kate McBeane, Chicago, aged 63, right leg fractured.

Mrs. Lester Dochier, Tavistock, Ont., Canada, aged 74, leg fractured and bruises.

The injured who were taken to the hospital at Durand are: George Nelson, Battle Creek; fireman on No. 4, badly scalded; Will probably die.

Clinton A. Davis, Montreal; probably fatally scalded.

Mrs. M. Stouffer, Dubuque, Iowa, upper lip cut and severe bruises.

Locomotive Plows Through Coach.

The engine of No. 4 plowed three quarters of the way through the sleeping car Nebraska, the last car in train No. 14, catching eighteen persons asleep in the coach. The fire box of the colliding engine then dropped out and the coach in a few minutes was blazing from end to end. As the flames ate their way through the splintered timbers of the coach the cries of the injured ceased and the odor of burning flesh deterred the passengers of the undamaged cars and the farmers who had hurried from their homes to assist in the work of rescue.

No Time to Warn Second Train.

The two trains left Chicago yesterday. No. 14, the first section passed through Durand at 10:02 p. m., and No.
4 at 10:35. The engine of No. 14 was having trouble with its air brakes and two miles out of this city Engineer Mitchell stopped the train and, with his fireman got down underneath the engine to make repairs. brakeman G.
S. Graham, of Detroit, was sent back to place a torpedo on the track and flag the expected second section. But No. 4 came rushing on at a speed of 40 miles an hour and ripped its way through the Pullman car.

The shock of the collision sent the whole standing train a little forward, and Engineer Mitchell with his fireman underneath the stalled engine were badly hurt. brakeman Graham

GET THE CROOKS BIG AND LITTLE

Roosevelt in Buffalo Speech Puts Breath of Battle Into His Warlike Purpose.

MAKES GOOD ON PROMISE TO GIVE FIGHT

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Theodore Roosevelt pledged himself to the men of Buffalo today to help them and all sincere citizens to fight crookedness wherever it was found.

"I'll help you just as I did in the past," he said, speaking to the Ellicott club, whose guest he was at breakfast, an hour after sun rise. He made a plea for the punishment of crooked and grafting public officials and the election of honest men in their places. A process of gradually but permanently raising the morale of political and business life and said he thought it duty to hunt out crooks and especially crooks of his own party.

Special Foe of Republican Crooks.

"I believe in party government," he said, "but the moment a question of honesty is involved, I recognize no party distinction, or, if I make any, it is that it is a little more my business to put the grafter and crook out of public life if he belongs to my party than if to another. This attitude demands that one's attention be fixed not on financial or social status but on conduct."

Nearly 400 members of the Ellicott club and other citizens representing leading professional and business interests and a wide variety of political affiliations awaited Mr. Roosevelt's coming from the New York Central station, where he had arrived from Utica at 6:20 in his private car Republic, attached to a regular train. The club's rooms are high up in one of the city's downtown business blocks which was not yet astir with the day's work.

Cheered as He Entered.

As the ex-president entered he was cheered and "America" was sung, with the backing of a regimental band. Breakfast was expeditiously served after which there was less than an hour before the scheduled time of Mr.
Roosevelt's departure for Chicago.

The presence of Fred Greiner, republican leader of Erie county, was generally commented upon.

Among those who got an especially hearty greeting from Mr. Roosevelt was "Tony" Gavin, a Buffalo policeman formerly a rough rider. The colonel shook his hand across the table and said some pleasant things in which the words "bully, glad to see you" occurred.

Mr. Roosevelt made good use of the 15 minutes available for his remarks.
The men who heard him, who noted his earnestness in dealing with the subject of crookedness and grafting, and who frequently broke in with sharp applause, had in mind his expressions within the past few days to the effect that "They will have all the fight they want."

Attack the Crooks, He Says.

Mr. Roosevelt first dwelt upon a subject of particular local interest—the necessity of preserving unpolluted the wonderful fresh water supply of the great lakes.

"We claim to be a civilized people," he said. "As such we ought to be able to dispose of our sewage without putting it into our drinking water. So also in the fields of morals, public and domestic," he continued, "there must be no pollution at the sources."

This led naturally to his grimly earnest expression of intention to seek out and bring to accounting grafters, big and little.

"Distrust, however," he said, "financial men who can only see crookedness in grafting small politicians and grafting leaders; distrust also those who can see it only in the financiers. You must attack a man because he's crooked. If poor and crooked attack him. If rich and crooked attack him. In fact, attack the rich crook a trifle stronger.
Yes, I will put it—attack him very strongly."

Talks Against Locomotive.

When Colonel Roosevelt appeared on the rear platform at Buffalo, he was met by a large gathering of railroad men. Within fifty feet of his car an engine was blowing off steam.
"I can't talk against that," protested Colonel Roosevelt, nodding toward the locomotive. The man on the locomotive said he could not stop the noise and the colonel attempted to deliver a brief address.

"I have always admired the railroad men because they have certain qualities I like to think of as typical of Americans. They know how to get each for himself and also in commission. They know how to work. They know how to obey orders and how to act each on his own individuality. The average American in his political, industrial and social life must show just these traits."

The constant noise of the steaming locomotive made speaking very difficult for the colonel, who again protested. "It is really an outrage," he declared. "I cannot talk to that engine."

Then he told the crowd that an engine was "the only thing he could not talk against" and the train moved off, as some of the men shouted, "Do them up at the convention, Teddy."

Col. Roosevelt called bravely, but made no reply.

Likes to Be Called "Teddy."

Fully 3,000 persons greeted Colonel Roosevelt when his special train arrived in Erie at 2:20 a. m. The colonel spoke briefly, chiefly along the lines of the earlier speech he made at

OUTLINES POLITICAL CREED.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 25.—Theodore Roosevelt outlined his political creed in three speeches today, which he crowded into fifteen minutes.

"There are two prime articles in my faith," he said. "I stand for justice for the rich and poor man alike and the punishment of wrong doing wherever and by whomsoever done."

"If the corporation does wrong, I will clench it, if I have the power to do so."

"If the poor man does wrong, I'll stand back of the law to see that he gets his deserts."

"I do not distinguish between the man of wealth and the man of poverty so long as both are law abiding citizens, clean men and working for clean government."

Some one asked the speaker what he thought of James R. Garfield, who recently led the Ohio insurgents to defeat at the state republican convention. A progressive cried out: "He's all right."

"Sure," replied Colonel Roosevelt,
"He's all right."

The crowd found the conversation enjoyable.

Colonel Roosevelt arrived here at 10:45, it being the third stop in his cross Ohio journey, he having already addressed crowds at Ashtabula and Conneaut. At 11:35 his train left for Toledo, where a ten minutes' stop will be made.

DECLARES WAR ON OLD GUARD.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Theodore Roosevelt served notice here today that he would wage war without quarter on the old guard of the republican party in New York state. Having been drawn into the fight, he says, against his will, he has determined to pursue it to the end, win or lose.

Mr. Roosevelt's attitude was indicated more clearly than at any time before by a statement which he issued today.

The colonel said he was going into the fight with his eyes open and with full realization of the fact that he might not be successful. He said he felt that, on account of the attitude of members of the organization he was at perfect liberty to carry on uncompromising warfare.

Some of Colonel Roosevelt's closest

OSAGE RED MEN ARE RICHEST PEOPLE ON EARTH

Each Member of Tribe is Shown to be Worth $20,000— 000—More to Get.

Pawhuska, Okla., Aug. 25.—Testimony was given before the congressional committee investigating Indian affairs today that each of the twenty-three hundred Osage Indians is worth twenty thousand dollars, which on a per capita basis constitute them the richest people in the world. As their property is held in restriction by the government the Indians have used a great many lawyers. It was stated.
One attorney testified he represented twenty-three claimants who demanded that the government place them on the Osage rolls, thus giving them the right to twenty thousand dollars worth of property. The wealth of these claimants, if they are successful, would amount to four hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

Another attorney testified he had been employed to oppose the claims on the ground that if allowed they would decrease the wealth of the tribe.
Attorneys fees were paid to keep the Indians off the rolls and fees were paid for putting them on.

A firm of attorneys declared they were to act a contingent fee of forty-two thousand dollars for securing to the Osage tribe seven hundred thousand dollars said to be due them by the government. Information has been given the committee that many white people are anxious to induce the government to pay off the Indians and settle up their estates. It was held that this would result in the Indians rapidly spending all their wealth and soon becoming charges on the state.

we struck the torpedo," he says.

"I heard it all right, but there was man, to jump. I made a flying leapand landed in the ditch. Nelson did not get away fast enough and was killed.

"I tell you the tail lights of No. 14 were not going and the torpedo was plunged so close to the rear of 14 that I did not have time to stop."

The crew of No. 14, except the engineer, are said to have been killed during the recent strike and remained after the settlement.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 23.—The De-

Tuesday was the first step in the fight which he expects to carry on from now before and after the state convention.

Mr. Sherman has been refusing inter-night he said positively he would have no statement to make at any time, so far as he could see at present.

Colonel Roosevelt spent the day with his brother-in-law, Douglas Robinson, in his country home, 20 miles east of The feature of the outing was the letic stars among the fun-seekers.These two men finishing first and sec-

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

GRASSHOPPERS DO DAMAGE TO CROPS

Unusually Numerous During the Dry Weather and Attack All Green Vegetation.

Wabash, Ind., August 25.—According to the statements of Adam Miller, a well-known farmer residing six miles north of Wabash, between the Laketon and Manchester pikes, grasshoppers are doing much damage in that vicinity.

Mr. Miller says that the pests have been industriously at work on his farm and that a corn field he has shown the result of their appetites. All of the silk about the corn in a dozen rows around the entire field has been devoured by the devastating pest.

And with their march on through the corn much damage will be done. Scarcely any sort of vegetation escapes the pestiferous insect and the leaves and berries on every elderberry bush along a ditch in his neighborhood has been devoured. The bushes, which line the creek on either side have been stripped of foliage and berries.

The dry season is thought to be the cause of the presence of the grasshoppers in such numbers. Clover fields, where there have been any sort of a second growth, have been visited by the pests in swarms and what clover was able to withstand the drought has been devoured by the insects.

BRIDGE FROCK FOR WINTER.

Paris costumes continue to be slender, narrow and straight, with a delicate simplicity that is the despair of the unskilled dressmaker. This little afternoon frock of gray marquisette is coned at the foot by a hem of deep navy blue satin, and a girle of the satin and pipings around the embroidery motifs add character to the gray tone of marquisette and embroidery.

of the richest contributions to American stage art that has ever been disclosed. In the production of the play, also, Mr. and Mrs. Fiske achieved remarkable results both in the scenic equipment and the stage management. The handling of the scene depicting the historically famous Duchess of Richmond's ball on the eve of the battle of Waterloo being a triumph in the latter respect. "Becky Sharp" and Mrs. Fiske are almost synonymous in a way, for she is known and loved as "Becky" the country over and her work in Langdon Mitchell's dramatization of Thackeray's ever-enduring "Vanity Fair" is marked by touches inseparable of the art which is such a benediction to the American stage.

Foremost in aiding the efforts of Mrs. Fiske in her work, as well as in the production of the play, is the "Becky Sharp" is "Becky Sharp" which is a production of the company are Henry Stephenson, William Eastland, Edward MacKay, Harold P. Smith, Robert A. Ferguson, Frank McCormack, Sheldon Lewis, E. Owen, John A. John, E. H. Arnold, E. L. Madden and Verla McEvoy.

Glen Henderson, Amy Lindemuth, Efficiency of Teachers.
Superintendent Felger thinks he has a splendid corps of teachers this year.

Most of them are residents of the county. Other things being equal, the trustees in their employment of teachers give such the preference. Some, however, are from outside the county. Good teachers are not abundant, at least the wages paid is not sufficient to hold some of them and they get into other callings.
The wages paid in the rural schools is from $50 to $70 a month. In the town schools it is from $60 to $75, and in the high schools from $70 to $100, for five days out of each week of the month. The school year consists of from seven to nine months, in most cases being nine months.

In regard to men and women in the teachers, employed this year the sexes are about equally represented, the male, as a rule being the better paid.
GRAF AND LULEY VICTORS.
Proved to Be Stars at Knights of Columbus Field Day.
In the athletic contests in connection with the first annual outing of the local council of Knights of Columbus, No. 481, at Robison park yesterday, Philip Graf and Albert Luley won first and second places respectively in the 100 yard dash and the high jump.

There were other contests in which the ladies, girls and children were the participants. The outing was a most enjoyable one and will very likely be an annual affair hereafter.

MR ROCKEFELLER STARTS WAR ON NOISE; WANTS ROAD CLOSED.

BEDFORD ROAD AT JUNCTION OF WEBSTER AVENUE. THIS ROAD MR. ROCKEFELLER WANTS CLOSED.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Because the noise from open exhausts on automobiles disturbs his slumbers, and also because of the danger to his family on account of heavy automobile traffic in the Bedford run, which cuts through his property and is the principal thoroughfare between this place and Pocantico Hills, John D. Rockefeller wants the little village to divert the traffic to Webster avenue. He has not yet made a definite proposal, but the preliminaries have been gone over and the village board has asked for further information. Mr. Rockefeller will not succeed in his plan without a fight from the residents. He wants to send the merry villagers and the gay automobile parties up through the peaceful Sleepy Hollow Valley to a private road at the north end of his property, and so far away that they will be out of sight and hearing. Mr. Rockefeller has already taken the matter in hand as far as he is able, and has had placed at the junction of the Bedford road and Webster avenue a sign directing the drivers of motor vehicles and carriages to use Webster

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

What the Sentinel Had to Say About Persons and Events Twenty-Five Years Ago.

Harry Templar is now assistant cashier at the Pittsburgh freight office. Charles M. Compant has opened an office at No. 15 West Berry street. Billy Stewart and his only "morill" show went west on the Wabash this morning. There was a little shooting bee in a Calhoun street gambling house yesterday over a game of cards. Mr. Charles Rekers has been added to the list of salesmen at the Star Clothing house of Sam, Pete & Max. Frank Chapman is a candidate for guager of this district. The office pays about $800. William Meyers, a member of the Jefferson club, is also very strongly urged for the place. Capt. Harper now holds it. Louis Mohr now occupies his handsome new building on Calhoun street with a fine display of sewing machines. A child of Dr. K. K. Wheelock got a needle in its foot this morning. The steel was extracted by Dr. H. V. Swearingen. Capt. Scott Swann, Capt. James Harper, Dr. J. S. Seaton, Christ. Jones and A. H. Dougall, managers of the recent soldiers' encampment, were busy today paying off their assistants at the fair grounds. They will realize a snug sum from the affair. The attendance on Saturday was about 30,000 people.

The new bell for St. John's Reformed church came this morning and will soon be placed in position in the house of worship.

Licensed to marry: William R. Roberts and Emma E. Fisher; Oliver J. Greenwalt and Ella F. Jackson; Christian Korr and Maria Beake. Charles and Eliza Nestel are now in New York, and will sail tomorrow on the steamer City of Rome for Liverpool. From there they will go direct to London, where they have engagements to play in three theaters, and perhaps will spend the winter in that city. As soon as their father can close up his business here he will join them and go with them to Australia. The trip will be a two-year one.

GAVE ALL MUCH FUN.

Races at Grocers' Picnic Biggest Feature of the Day.

Although there was much to interest and entertain the three thousand families, wives and sweethearts of the members of the Retail Grocers' association at their third annual picnic at Swinney park yesterday, the amateur athletic contests held in the afternoon proved to be the big feature.

During the entire afternoon and evening the Citizens' band rendered selections. In the evening an ice cream social was given and was attended by several thousand people. The proceeds of the social are used to defray picnic expenses.

Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Mrs. Rose Glaser, Terre Haute, Ind., tells the result in her case. "After suffering for many years from a serious case of kidney trouble and spending much money for so called cures, I found Foley Kidney Pills the only medicine that gave me a permanent cure. I am again able to be up and attend to my work. I shall never hesitate to recommend them." Drexler Bros.

Making Muck Into Money

The transformation scheme which is developing rich truck farms from forbidding looking swamps and abandoned bogs. Solid acres of worthless lands converted into dollars, producing acres of rich soil. The great farm of Bonney & Ware from which is raised three crops a year was reclaimed in this way. Just a few mechanical tricks supplemented by a little common sense and lots of hard work did it. The latest term for it is farm engineering, the new born science that is going to revolutionize this land.

Dogs and Their Care

A beautifully illustrated page for misses, showing the fashionable favorites, the French Poodle, Toy Pomeranians, Japanese Poodles, Yorkshire Terriers, Scotch Collies, Boston Bulls, Greyhounds, Wire Fox Terriers, English Sheep Dogs, they are all illustrated. Much of the character of the mistress can be told from her dog. It can be judged whether she is an outdoor, athletic girl who prefers the more rugged kind of dogs. If she loves the little King Charles and other toy dogs, she is a girl of different tastes. The kind of dogs to keep in a city and the kind for the country. A Practical Talk by the April Grandmother will be found on this page. This week she tells in her charming way how to care for the scalp in all seasons. Hats, the great enemy of the scalp.

The Carpentry of the Musical Stage

From the inception to the opening night all is toil, patient effort and building up or destroying, says Garnet Warren in his handsomely illustrated page on this interesting subject. That sacred person, the producer, is shown at his desk. The making of costumes, the scenic artist and his models. The painting of the scenery and the first rehearsal are all illustrated from life. While all this is going on many things are occurring in the managerial sanctuary. After the first dress rehearsal many things are changed. After this rehearsal the company is transported to the "try out" towns and it is then up to the public.

Sally Prue Considers Going On the Stage

Our friend Sally who left her southern home to make her own way in the world is against a stiff proposition. She lost her job in midsummer. Nothing doing she endeavors to get on the stage. She is given a position in the chorus but an old friend turns up with some sound advice and gets her a job in a store which is more to her taste. Her new experiences while she was trying for the theatrical job. Sally emerges pure and sweet as ever.

Miss Virginia

A page monologue by a girl of the period of 1760. The scene is laid in the attic of a Virginia mansion of that time. Her guardian, in order to pay a gambling debt, has betrothed her to a man old enough to be her great-grandfather. Her feelings in the matter and ultimate outcome of the situation. Girls were different in those days.

Skibby and the Stovepipe Spuds

This week Skibby goes to the country to pick potatoes with Johnnie Clark. He meets Mr. Bruff, the genial man who runs the farm. Thinks him too innocent to do any wrong. Recognizes an old enemy when Mr. Bruff's partner in the potato farm arrives from the city. Overhears them talking of a fifteen hundred dollar profit on a certain deal. Detects Mr. Bruff in the queer manipulation of a stovepipe and a sack of potatoes. Is wise to the steal and notifies the city wholesale houses who are the purchasers on condition that Johnnie get his job back, as it was the same institution from which he had been "fired." Skibby is always to the front in good work.

The Widow Wise

Verses by Paul West, drawings by W. H. Loomis, in two colors. The widow goes a sailing with Percy Pash, the commodore of the "Front Porch Fleet" of the Yacht club. Percy proposes and is almost accepted by the widow, but when he gets sea sick the widow changes her mind.

A Wall Street Scoop

A page handsomely illustrated. Ferdie Hicks on way to look up an arrivé millionaire at the dock and his artist fiancée in company with a Wall street millionaire operator. After jealousy he calls on her in the evening for an explanation. Explanation is satisfactory. They plan to use the speculator as a means to fortune in order that they may get money enough on which to get married. The speculator continually gives Ferdie tips that put his paper in the front rank as financial news authority. Through Ferdie's confidence and trust in him uses Ferdie and his paper to make a grand coup, nets him millions and costs Ferdie his position. remembers Ferdie substantially but gives him so strange advice.

Two Colored Comic Pages

For the children and grown-ups as well. Uncle Mun shows Hanna and children how to beat and at the same time make butter when the sun are closed on a holiday. What do you think of Uncle Mun? A whole page of him in two colors. The Tiny Tads take a ride in the old can Foundland. One falls out and finishes the trip in Sauce-paniel.

Buster Brown with usual bravery, captures mad elephant, escaped from a circus. It was simple when you know how.

How the Twins Celebrated

Is the principal story on the page for every boy and girl. The Howard twins, "Bobba" and "Bohbaty," were not allowed fireworks on the Fourth of July, but managed to make things rather lively with a piece of punk and a can of gasoline. When papa came home there was something doing. Another charming little story on this page is "Freddie's First Rescue." His father tended the big light house and Freddie accompanied him to an abandoned wreck floating the ocean. What he saw and rescued makes a big little story for boys and girls.

News and Views of the Farmers

This page again this week contains a lot of useful information for those interested in agriculture. It is the best farm page published by any newspaper. Everything is practical and has been tested.

Any newsdealer in Fort Wayne can supply you with a Saturday's Sentinel but why not call up 173 (either phone) and have Fort Wayne's greatest newspaper delivered to your door every evening. Only 10 cents per week.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for widowhood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good."

It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. Ask Your Neighbors. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

$25,000 RHINO BEAUTY GETS NEW HOME.

CENTRAL PARK'S $25,000 RHINOCEROS

New York, Aug. 23.—Smiles, the double horned rhinoceros, the most beautiful of the animals in Central Park menagerie, was moved from her cage in the elephant house for the first time in twenty-two years. Park Commissioner Stover decided recently that her old lodging was not a safe enough place for such a beauty as Smiles, the only exit in the event of a fire being an eight hundred pound iron door leading to the next cage, which was sealed fast by the rust of two decades. So Smiles had to be moved while workmen built a new fire escape gate.
